

 The University of British Columbia Board of Governors	Policy No.: 119	Approval Date: February 1989 Last Revision: June 2005
	Responsible Executive: Vice-President, Administration and Finance
Title: Cash Handling
Background & Purposes: The purpose of this Policy is to establish responsibility and describe the minimum requirements for cash handling.

1. General

1.1. Responsibility

- 1.1.1. It is the responsibility of the Department of Financial Services to ensure that the policy requirements for cash handling are clearly documented and current.
- 1.1.2. It is the responsibility of faculty and staff who handle University funds to implement adequate procedures to ensure adherence to the policy requirements.

1.2. Requirements

- 1.2.1. University funds must be deposited into a University account administered by the Department of Financial Services.
- 1.2.2. The full amount of cash received should be deposited directly into the appropriate bank account using a Cash Receipt Direct Bank Deposit form (see schedule A for Specific instructions including donations deposits and deposits for Contract and Grant accounts). Cash receipts shall not be used for personal loans, cashing of cheques, making purchases, or for salaries, wages or honoraria.
- 1.2.3. All cheques must be restrictively endorsed, i.e. "For Deposit Only to The University of British Columbia", immediately upon receipt. The ten digit FRS account number to be credited shall also be entered on the reverse side of the cheque. Cash and cheques must be safeguarded at all times in a locked safe or other secure location. Cash must not be sent by mail.
- 1.2.4. Cash and cheques should be deposited on a daily basis. Where this is not possible and providing amounts are minimal, funds must not be held for longer than one week.
- 1.2.5. Departments must ensure that cash receipts are correctly coded to departmental accounts.
- 1.2.6. Cash receipts must be reviewed and reconciled to ledger accounts on a timely basis to ensure they have been correctly recorded. Accounting adjustments to ledgers must also be made on a timely basis.

- 1.2.7. Adequate segregation of duties and restricted access to cash handling areas must be implemented, to the extent possible, to ensure the safeguarding of cash. As a minimum this should include the separation of the cash handling from the control and reconciliation of the 3-part receipts, and cash register operation from approval of the cash deposit.
- 1.2.8. There are several specific cash related activities at the University. These activities are identified below:

Activity	Section
Use of cash registers	A
Collection of cash from coin-operated machines	B
Sale of course material and tickets	C
Use of petty cash	D
Use of change floats	E
Use of 3-part receipt books	F
Receipt of cheques by mail	G

- 1.2.9. Departments with a significant volume of cash receipts should use a cash register.
- 1.2.10. Departments that handle cash must review and understand the policies applicable to them and implement procedures to comply with these policies, e.g. departments that receive cash from time to time, must review and understand the use of the 3-Part Receipt books.
- 1.2.11. Cash shortages or other discrepancies should be reported immediately to the Internal Audit department.

2. Section A: Use of Cash Registers

2.1. Purpose

- 2.1.1. To identify those departments that should be using cash registers and to outline the requirements for specific features of the cash register and the balancing and control procedures needed to operate a cash register.

2.2. Responsibility

- 2.2.1. It is the responsibility of the Department of Financial Services to ensure that the policy requirements for the use of cash registers are clearly documented and current.
- 2.2.2. It is the responsibility of faculty and staff who use cash registers to implement adequate procedures to ensure adherence to the policy requirements.

2.3. Requirements

- 2.3.1. Where cash is received in a variety of small and large amounts, frequently and directly from the customers, as in the Bookstore or Food Services, a cash register should be used.
- 2.3.2. The following procedural steps should be performed for all transactions:
- 2.3.2.1. Sales should be rung up in the presence of the customer.
- 2.3.2.2. The amounts being rung up should be clearly visible to the customer.

- 2.3.2.3. The customer should be provided with a printed receipt showing the amount. The name of The University of British Columbia should be clearly imprinted on the receipt.
- 2.3.2.4. Strict supervisory approval should be required for all voids, cancellations or other alterations to cash register tapes.
- 2.3.3. The cash register should produce a detail tape locked in the register which is a continuous record of the amounts recorded that day, with a total (X total).
- 2.3.4. The cash register should also provide, under a separate key control, the accumulated total amount of sales (Z total) which is carried forward for a longer time period, until authorized to be reset at zero.
- 2.3.5. The detail tape (X total) should not be accessible to the person using the register, and the reset key (Z total) should not be accessible to the supervisor of the activity involved.
- 2.3.6. In order to obtain effective control, the cash register tape should be accessible only to a supervisor, who does not operate the cash register. The reset key (Z total) should be in the custody of management senior to the supervisor.
- 2.3.7. At the close of the business day, the supervisor should unlock the register and read the X total. The supervisor should then clear the cash register for the following day, thus automatically recording on the tape the transaction total (X total) of the current day's cash receipts. The detail tape should then be removed from the register and retained for subsequent comparison with the total cash turned in from the register.
- 2.3.8. The cash should be counted by the cashier and the bank deposit prepared for all receipts. All differences between cash receipts and registered tapes must be reconciled and a record kept of cash overages and shortages. This reconciliation should be checked by the supervisor.
