

The University of British Columbia
Board of Governors

Policy No.:

49

Approval Date:

August 1984

Last Revision:

November 2016
[anticipated]

Responsible Executive:

Vice-President, Human Resources

Title:

Pre-Retirement Reduced Appointment Agreements for Staff

Background & Purpose:

The purpose of this Policy is to provide pre-retirement options to eligible staff for more flexible employment arrangements while recognizing the University’s need for succession planning and continuity of operations.

A pre-retirement reduced appointment agreement will result in a reduction of volume and/or scope of work and corresponding reduction in work time for up to three years prior to a staff member’s retirement. A pre-retirement reduced appointment agreement is voluntary and ends on a pre-determined retirement date.

1. Scope

- 1.1. A pre-retirement reduced appointment agreement (a “PRA Agreement”) may be considered where a staff member:
 - 1.1.1. holds a full-time continuing appointment;
 - 1.1.2. is at least 55 years of age; and
 - 1.1.3. has a minimum of 15 years full-time continuous service at the University; (each, an “Employee”).

2. General

- 2.1. A PRA Agreement is voluntary and by mutual agreement of the Employee and the University and is not extended as a matter of right.
- 2.2. A PRA Agreement requires the approval of the Responsible Executive.
- 2.3. The specific nature and duration of workload reduction for a PRA Agreement will be a matter of agreement between the Employee and the Employee’s administrative head of unit; however:
 - 2.3.1. the Employee’s appointment must not be reduced to less than 50% of the full-time position; and
 - 2.3.2. the duration of the PRA Agreement must be for a fixed term to a maximum of three years.
- 2.4. Salary during a PRA Agreement shall be commensurate with the reduced appointment under the PRA Agreement.

- 2.5. Unless otherwise stipulated in this Policy or restricted by benefit plan terms or government regulations, premiums, eligibility and entitlements for specific benefits programs during the PRA Agreement shall be determined based on the position's full-time salary.
- 2.6. For greater certainty, in respect of an Employee's pension benefits under a PRA Agreement, the following shall apply:
 - 2.6.1. the calculation of the Employee's pension entitlement during the PRA Agreement shall be based on the position's full-time salary rather than the Employee's actual salary; and
 - 2.6.2. during the term of the PRA Agreement, the Employee and the University will make pension contributions based on the position's full-time salary rather than the Employee's actual salary.
- 2.7. Premiums, eligibility and entitlements in respect of the following benefits shall be determined on the basis of the Employee's reduced appointment under the PRA Agreement:
 - 2.7.1. long-term disability benefits;
 - 2.7.2. tuition waiver;
 - 2.7.3. vacation and paid holidays; and
 - 2.7.4. sick leave.
- 2.8. Premiums paid by the Employee and benefits available for Canada Pension, Employment Insurance and Workers' Compensation shall be calculated in accordance with applicable government regulations.
- 2.9. The Employee's salary is subject to salary adjustments according to the salary policy relating to the Employee's classification, employee group and relevant collective agreement.
- 2.10. Once a PRA Agreement is approved by the Responsible Executive and accepted by an Employee, it constitutes irrevocable notice by the Employee to retire.
- 2.11. The Employee shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of employment applicable to the Employee except as altered by this Policy.
- 2.12. Where an agreement or handbook states that it supersedes this Policy, then that agreement or handbook shall govern.

PROCEDURES

Approved: August 1984

Pursuant to Policy #1: Administration of Policies, "Procedures may be amended by the President, provided the new procedures conform to the approved policy. Such amendments are reported at the next meeting of the Board of Governors." Note: the most recent procedures may be reviewed at <http://universitycounsel.ubc.ca/policies/index/>.

1. General

- 1.1. To initiate a PRA Agreement under this Policy, Employees should apply in writing to their administrative head of unit. A minimum of 12 months' notice is required, which may be waived by mutual agreement of the Employee and the applicable administrative head of unit.
- 1.2. If the administrative head of unit supports the application, the administrative head of unit shall recommend the PRA Agreement in writing to the Responsible Executive.
- 1.3. If approved by the Responsible Executive, the University shall prepare the PRA Agreement which shall include:
 - 1.3.1. an explanation of the change in nature and duration of the work to be performed, including the percentage time to be worked or salary classification change;
 - 1.3.2. the start date of the PRA Agreement;
 - 1.3.3. the retirement date of the Employee; and
 - 1.3.4. the position's full-time annual salary and the Employee's actual annual salary.
- 1.4. The Employee shall sign the PRA Agreement to confirm acceptance of its terms and a fully-executed copy shall be retained by the University.