Background & Purposes:

This Policy sets out the requirements for posting and advertising available employment positions before selecting a candidate. Publishing available employment positions widely is a key component of the recruitment process as it:

- Improves UBC’s potential to access the largest pool of exceptionally-qualified candidates for each employment position;
- Provides equal opportunity to all who seek employment at UBC;
- Provides for a clear and transparent process; and
- Satisfies requirements of Employment and Social Development Canada/Service Canada and Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada.

2. General Principles

- 2.1 Recognizing that a diverse range of perspectives contributes to excellence, where academic or administrative units wish to fill one or more employment positions, they are encouraged to use a variety of recruitment strategies and advertising media (including print and electronic) appropriate to the available positions to proactively attract a broad and diverse pool of qualified applicants.

- 2.2 The availability of an Advertised Position must be advertised in accordance with the Procedures to this Policy before it is filled, except as provided for in section 5.1 of this Policy. Advertisements for all other employment positions that may be available at UBC are optional, but academic and administrative units that elect to advertise those available employment positions must do so in a manner that complies, at a minimum, with the posting and advertising requirements set out in section 4 of this Policy.

3. Advertised Positions

- 3.1 The availability of the following employment positions must be advertised before the position is filled:
- 3.1.1 Faculty Members;
  - 3.1.2 Designated Senior Academic Administrators;
  - 3.1.3 Deans;
  - 3.1.4 Principals;
  - 3.1.5 Administrative Vice-Presidents;
  - 3.1.6 the Registrar and the University Librarian appointed pursuant to Registrar/Librarians Appointment Policy;
  - 3.1.7 Librarians;
  - 3.1.8 Program Directors;
  - 3.1.9 Research Associates; and
  - 3.1.10 All other employment positions where posting of the available employment position is required by the applicable Employee Group Agreements.

4. Posting and Advertising Requirements

- 4.1 UBC hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. In accordance with the Employment Equity Policy, all position postings and advertisements must include UBC's approved diversity statement as set forth in the Procedures to this Policy.
- 4.2 Before an available employment position can be filled by a foreign candidate, the availability of the employment position must be advertised in compliance with all Employment and Social Development Canada requirements. Therefore, where it is likely that an available employment position may be successfully filled by a foreign candidate, the academic or administrative unit conducting the search should familiarize itself with Employment and Social Development Canada requirements concerning the duration, location, media, and use of mandatory statements for advertisements.

4.3 The availability of employment positions must be advertised in a manner that meets all conditions of any applicable Employee Group Agreement.

4.4 All advertisements must comply with the Visual Identity Policy.

5. Non-Advertised Positions

5.1 Subject to Employment and Social Development Canada and applicable Employee Group Agreement requirements, UBC does not require advertisements for the Advertised Positions where:

5.1.1 the Advertised Position is a term appointment that is less than one year in length, provided that where such an appointment is to be extended beyond one year, the position must be advertised in accordance with the Procedures to this Policy (except if the term appointment less than one year is a sessional lecturer or lecturer, in which case the position must be advertised in accordance with the Procedures to this Policy in all circumstances);

5.1.2 the Advertised Position is an appointment or extension of an appointment of an existing Faculty Member as a Head of Academic Unit in accordance with the Academic Heads Policy;

5.1.3 the Advertised Position is an existing appointment that is being extended in accordance with the Deans Extension Policy, Academic Administrators Extension Policy, Administrative VPs Policy, Registrar/Librarians Extension Policy; or

5.1.4 the Responsible Executive has waived UBC's advertising requirement in accordance with section 5.2 of this Policy.

5.2 Subject to Employment and Social Development Canada requirements, in special circumstances, at the request of a Dean or an advisory committee to the President, as applicable, the Responsible Executive may waive UBC's advertising requirements in whole or in part. Special circumstances include, but are not limited to situations where:

5.2.1 UBC has an opportunity to appoint a highly-qualified candidate who is supported by an external program or agency that will wholly or partly fund the initial appointment;

5.2.2 UBC has advertised for one (1) or more available employment positions in accordance with the Procedures to this Policy and has an opportunity to appoint additional candidates that meet the qualifications and criteria specified in the advertisement;

5.2.3 for a dual career appointment, UBC has an opportunity to recruit a candidate or retain a valuable faculty member by appointing the spousal partner to an available employment position, provided the unit to which the spousal partner is to be appointed is supportive of the dual career appointment;

5.2.4 UBC has an opportunity to appoint an exceptionally-qualified, internationally-recognized candidate; and

5.2.5 UBC requires an emergency appointment.

5.3 The Board of Governors may, from time to time, request reports regarding special circumstances where the Responsible Executive has waived UBC's advertising requirement. At least annually, a report of such special circumstances will be attached to the report of Teaching Staff appointments provided to the Board of Governors pursuant to the Board Appointments Policy.

4.2.4 in a manner that complies with the Employment and Social Development Canada requirements regarding information that must be included in the advertisement.

4.3 Due to the diversity of employment positions at UBC and the various foreign worker programs offered by Employment and Social Development Canada, where an academic or administrative unit considers that it is likely that an available employment position may be successfully filled by a foreign candidate, such unit should work with their Human Resources Advisors before proceeding with a search.

Academic units seeking to recruit or nominate a Canada Research Chair position should work with the Canada Research Chair Secretariat, Office of the Provost and Vice-President Academic (UBC Vancouver) to ensure that the availability of the Canada Research Chair position is advertised in a manner consistent with:

5.1.1 the principles embodied in the Policy and these Procedures;

5.1.2 any applicable Employee Group Agreements;

5.1.3 the Canada Research Chairs Program guidelines for ensuring a fair and transparent recruitment and nomination process; and
