Short Title: Financial Investigations Policy

Background & Purposes:

The University of British Columbia (“UBC”) administers large volumes of funds for research, teaching, operations, and other UBC related purposes and is committed to maintaining sound management of its resources with integrity and honesty. Improper Financial Activity (as herein defined) is contrary to UBC’s values, and damages UBC’s reputation and ability to carry out its mission. Therefore, UBC has in place a strong system of internal control, and other checks and balances, and continually strives for transparency and accountability throughout its operations.

The purpose of this Policy is to define the mandate of Internal Audit’s audit and investigation responsibilities; and to communicate the process that should be followed by any UBC Member (as herein defined) who has a good faith concern regarding Improper Financial Activity.

1. General

- 1.1 UBC demonstrates its commitment to promoting and maintaining a fiscally responsible and ethical university environment by:
  - 1.1.1 affirming its expectation that all UBC Members act in the best interest of UBC with respect to their financial and operational responsibilities, as set forth herein;
  - 1.1.2 fostering an atmosphere where UBC Members are confident that UBC will not tolerate any acts of intimidation, harassment, discipline, or retaliation against a UBC Member, including without limitation any demotion, suspension, termination, or any action, whether actual or threatened, that adversely affects the employment or the learning environment of any UBC Member at UBC (collectively, referred to herein as an “Act of Retaliation”), as a result of such UBC Member reporting a good faith concern in accordance with Section 4 of this Policy; and
  - 1.1.3 establishing and adhering to the appropriate procedures for audits and investigations by Internal Audit in order to provide independent and objective assurances of UBC’s operations; to identify and prevent Improper Financial Activity; and including without limitation, to support both the Internal Audit Mandate and the Internal Investigation Mandate as set forth herein.

2. Scope

- 2.1 This Policy applies to all of UBC's full-time and part-time faculty, staff, and, students (including, without limitation, clinical faculty, visiting professors, and any person enrolled in any degree, non-degree, diploma, certificate granting or residency programs at UBC), or any person who teaches, conducts research, or works at, or under the auspices of UBC (collectively referred to herein as a "UBC Member").

- 3.2 Examples of Improper Financial Activity include but are not limited to the following:
  - 3.2.1 misappropriation, misapplication or theft of UBC's funds, securities, supplies, inventory, furniture, fixtures or equipment, trade secrets and intellectual property or services;
  - 3.2.2 any breach of a finance-related fiduciary duty or obligation of confidentiality;

  - 3.2.6 giving or receiving any form of unauthorized benefit, including but not limited to, bribery, kickbacks, or commissions; and
  - 3.2.7 actions related to concealing or abetting any of the aforementioned activities.

4. Reporting Improper Financial Activity

All administrative heads of units at UBC have a duty to promptly notify the director of the Internal Audit Department (the "Director") of any allegations of Improper Financial Activity disclosed to them under this Section 4, and to consult with Internal Audit prior to conducting their own investigation or review relating to the allegation of Improper Financial Activity.
